Hells Canyon Mule Days – "Always the weekend after Labor Day"

HELLS CANYON MULE DAYS
SEPTEMBER 11-12-13, 2026
WALLOWA COUNTY EVENT CENTER & FAIRGROUNDS - ENTERPRISE, OREGON
"ALWAYS THE WEEKEND AFTER LABOR DAY"

Kick It Up A Notch And Scoot Your Boots To Hells Canyon Mule Days 2026!

Hells Canyon Mule Days is continuing its annual exciting activity for three days of family fun for mule enthusiasts by celebrating the 45th annual Hells Canyon Mule Days on September 11-12-13. The Board of Directors have lots of great ideas and are working to make this event the largest mule show in the Northwest.

We are inviting you to join us for our 45th annual event by exhibiting your wares to a growing targeted market who attend our show. Both contestants and spectators are growing in numbers each year and we plan on even a larger attendance this year. We are certain that your participation in our event will successfully enlarge your market area, as Hells Canyon Mule Days is now advertising both nationwide and locally with, but not limited to:

- National Mule Magazines such as *Mules & More Magazine, Western Mule Magazine, and The Brayer
- The Entertainer, plus Chief Joseph Days, and the Union Stock Show Programs.
- Wallowa County Visitors Guide, NE Oregon Visitors Guide, The Eastern Oregonian & more...
- The Hells Canyon Mule Days website is listed and linked to many equine web-sites

The number of vendors and exhibitors of open-air booths on The Green, the Exhibitors Barn, and Quonset Building, will be greater than past years and the quality of their wares will be outstanding. Vendors and exhibitors include western artist, saddle makers, packing & riding equipment, custom designed and SW jewelry, antiques, silversmiths, spinners and weavers, metal art, custom hats, fresh produce, antler art, and woodworking.

The fees for a vendor/exhibitor space are as follows: The space fee includes (Friday, Saturday & Sunday)
